

Parent's Agreement and Waiver of Liability

I, the parent or legal guardian of _____, agree to support the decisions made in enforcing the rules my child has agreed to in the Tourister's Contract 2006. Further, I agree to absolve, release, and hold blameless the Alaska Children's Choir and/or its director and staff participating in the 2006 concert tour to New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts, from any financial liability or claim for damage of any nature arising out of any event associated with said trip. I realize that such a trip has certain risks involved, and that every attempt will be made to safeguard my child.

Statement of Commitment

The Alaska Children's Choir seeks to affirm each child in his or her own individuality and joy in life and song. Traveling offers an opportunity to bond with one another and to celebrate music in a festive and friendly spirit that balances discipline and freedom. The interaction with people and choirs of other states, nations, and cultures enriches all of our understanding of the diversity of peoples and the timeless unity of mankind through music.

All Alaska Children's Choir staff and chaperones will treat choir members with respect and as young professional performers who have agreed to abide by the rules of the tour and are attempting to achieve the best performance from themselves and from the entire choir. Chaperones will work with choristers to provide them with support and guidance to achieve these goals.

Alaska Children's Choir staff and chaperones will do everything possible to ensure the safety of the choristers and will enforce the touring choir rules fairly and consistently. Alaska Children's Choir will keep parents informed of changes in the itinerary and the impact on the goals, outcomes and costs of the tour.
